PROSPECTUS
OF THE Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully—felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances" We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among our sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the due discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

The Science of Health.

A NEW INDEPENDENT HEALTH MONTHLY.

Devoted to the preservation and restoration of Health on Hygienic principles.

To educate the people in the Science of Life, which includes all that relates to Preserving Health, and to the Art of Treating Disease without Medicine, is the object and purposes of this new Health Journal.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH will aim to disseminate throughout the world a knowledge of Hygenic principles. It will not be the organ of any person, business, or institution, but an earnest teacher of the Laws of Life and Health.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH will be the exponent of all known means by which Health, Strength, Happines, and Long Life may be obtained, by using and regulating those agencies vitally related to Health and the treatment of Disease, including Air, Light, Temperature, Bathing, Diet, Clothing, Exercise, Rest, Sleep, and all normal agents and hygienic materials.

"LO."

I met him on the prairie wild,
A single, solitary Crow—
A rude, untortured heathen child
Of Nature, and his name was Lo.

As I approached he seemed in pain;
He bent and doubled like a bow.
I thought: "This savage is insane."
I said; "What is it ails thee, Lo?"

He lifted up his eyes to mine,
And in their depths there shone a woe.
He spoke in plaintive, feeble whine:
"Me sick." I sympathized with Lo.

A bottle dark, of ample size,
I then produced—I noticed though,
A sparkle in the heathen's eyes;
And yet I never doubted Lo.

"Drink this," I said, "'twill warm you up;
Rejoicing on your way you'll go."
He drank the full of a pint cup—
"Me muchee better now," said Lo.

The dusk of evening fell around,
The wind more chill and cold did blow;
The rum was drank, and on the ground
We lay to sleep, both I and Lo.

Till morning, slumber sealed my eyes;
I woke half covered up with snow;
My boots were gone, my hat likewise,
My limbs were stiff—but were was Lo?

My mule and all my baggage gone,
"It's strange," said I where they could go
My blankets, too, which I laid on
Have disappeared—but where is Lo?"

I sat down in the snow so cold,
And cogitated, calm and slow.
Truth dawned upon me: I'd been sold
By that benighted heathen, Lo.

I want to meet him once again—
That single, solitary Crow—
I wish to see him once and then
I'll try to square accounts with Lo.

IS HE RICH?—Many a sigh is heaved, many a heart is broken, many a life rendered miserable by the terrible infatuation which persons manifest in choosing a life companion for their daughters. How is it possible for happiness to result from the union of two principles so diametrically opposed to each other in every point, as virtue is to vice? and yet, how often is wealth considered better recommendation for young men than virtue? How often is the first question which is asked respecting the suitor of a daughter, thus: "Is he rich?" Yes, he abounds in wealth, but does that afford any evidence that he will make a kind affectionate husband? "Is he rich?" Yes, his clothing is purple and fine linen, and he fares sumptuously every day, but can you infer from this that he is virtuous? "Is he rich?" Yes, thousands floating on every ocean, but do not riches sometimes "take to themselves wings and fly away?" And will you consent that your daughter shall marry a man who has nothing to recommend him but his wealth? Ask not, then, "Is he rich?" but has he honor? and do not sacrifice your daughter's peace for money.

WOMAN'S HAIR.

Dr. Benj. Godfrey has written a book on the "Disease of the Hair." He says that a woman's hair may grow to the length of six feet, and that a young lady of Massachusetts refused a thousand dollars for her "cranial covering, which was only one inch short of this measurement." Four hundred hairs of average thickness would cover an inch of space. The blonde belle has about one hundred and forty thousand filaments to comb and brush, while the red-haired beauty has to be satisfied with eighty-eight thousand; the brown-haired damsel may have one hundred and nine thousand, the black-haired but one hundred and two thousand. Few ladies consider that they carry some forty or fifty miles of hair on their head; the fair-haired may even have to dress seventy miles of threads of gold every morning. A German experimentalist has proved that a single hair will suspend four ounces without breaking, stretching under the process and contracting again. But the hair thus heavily weighted must be dark brown, for the blonde breaks down under two and a half ounces.

CASEY NOT REMOVED.

The New York Nation, a decided administration paper, says in its last issue, with reference to Casey's removal:

"We are sorry to say we were in error in announcing the resignation of Casey, the collector at New Orleans. That eminent person keeps his place in spite of his misconduct, and we have to remind our readers that no paper friendly to General Grant has ever attempted to defend or explain his course in retaining Casey. His retention gives a slightly farcial air to the proceedings of the Board of Commissioners sitting in this city to draft rules for the appointment and promotion of clerks in the Customhouse. We observe, by the way, that one of the rules they have drawn forbids the levying of "assessments" for political purposes on Customhouse employees, "as voluntary contributions or otherwise." It is one of the curiosities of politics that the majority of the Congressional Committee which a week or two ago whitewashed the Customhouse boldly justified the practice of levying assessments, and declared that they were purely "voluntary" contributions — probably one of the most impudent assertions ever made by a politician, and which Harper's Weekly in the President's interest felt bound to rebuke.

A PERILOUS HOUR.

Medical evidence proves that, in chronic diseases, the greater number of deaths occur just before dawn. This is eminently true of brain diseases, and of all those related cases where death results from an exhaustion of the vital power, through over-work, excessive excitement or nervous prostration. It is at the hour of 5 o'clock in the morning that the life force is at its lowest ebb, and succumbs most readily to the assault of epilepsy, or paralyssis, or of the fatal lethargy that comes in those vividly beautiful picture dreams, for which medical science has as yet found no name, and of which it has taken no sufficient cognizance. Nine-tenths of those who die in this way expire in their sleep. In many such cases, if a friend were at hand to awaken the sleeper when the attack comes on, or if he were to be awakened by some accidental noise, he might, by the use of a few simple preparations prolong his life for many years; for the shock which is fatal to the man wrapped in deep sleep, when the system is passive and relaxed, would be victoriously repelled were it armed with all its waking energies. Men who do brain work, and who are on the shady side of forty, should be on their guard against this insidious enemy. They should beware of 5 o'clock A. M., for it is a perilous hour. Do you find yourself unable to sleep, when you retire for the night, exhausted with your day's work? Do you, in vain, turn from one side to the other? Does your brain persist in working when you would fain have it rest? Do old saws and scraps of rhyme repeat themselves in your memory with wearisome iteration, defying your utmost to silence them? Then, beware! You will be sure to sleep at last. It is only a question of time: for, sooner or later, nature will assert her rights.—Reynold (English) Newspaper.

A WORD TO GIRLS—When you stop trying to make such Herculean efforts to pleasing, that moment you will become pleasing. When you learn to cease your continuous flow of small talk, to keep up conversation, and learn instead to listen intelligently—not stupidly, not absently but showing now and then, by a question or comment, that you are willing another than yourself should, occasionally, have attention and preference—then you will charm with one half the effort you now put forth, every day and hour.

Republican Convention. Resolutions Unanimously Adopted in Mechanics' Institute, June 22, 1872.

Resolved. That this convention, recognizing in Lieutenant Governor Pinchback pre-eminent courage, unswerving devotion to Republican principles, fidelity to the interests of his race, and also to the welfare of Louisiana, with pride and esteem point to him as one of the most eminent standard bearers of Republicanism in this State, and pledge to him our undivided and hearty support in carrying to victory the flag of Republican principles in the coming contest.

Resolved, That it is the unanimous sentiment of this Convention that this organization is the sole existing one to which Republicans can look with any hope for maintaining their due proportion of control in the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Government for preserving the equal rights of all the people of the State, for continuing and increasing the number of free schools for our children, and for delivering our people from the reactionary tendencies and devices of the Democracy.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to the people of this State to an honest and earnest endeavor to stop extravagances, curtail expenditures, diminish the taxes, put down venality and corruption, oppose usupation and tyrranny from whatever source, and encourage harmony and good feeling between all the people of this State, and the obliteration of all the animosities and distrusts caused by past conflicts.

Resolved, That we are in favor of electing to office honest and capable men, identified with the people of this State, and having their homes and interests with us.

Resolved, That with us the welfare and salvation of our own State are paramount to all considerations of national politics, and are the dearest objects of our desires.

Resolved, That as the best means to the attainment of these high and noble aims, the convention, when it adjourns, do adjourn to meet at Mechanics' Institute, in New Orleans, on the 9th of August, or at the call of the State Central Committee.

Resolved, That the State Central Committee be authorized to call upon the different parish organizations to double the number of their delegates to the convention to meet on August 9th.

Resolved, That it is the will of this Convention, in view of the differences of opinion existing among the members upon the expediency of declaring at this time its preferences on National questions, that we recognize the utmost liberty of opinion to the support of candidates for the Presidency, leaving to each delegate full liberty to declare preferences to the wishes of his constituents.

Resolved, That the Convention assembled under the auspices of the Customhouse at Baton Rouge, have betrayed the Republican party, have annulled with a high hand the will of the people; have expelled their legally elected delegates, and seated men in their places who were not elected, and who do not even live in the parishes they pretend to represent; have used bribery, threats and all kinds of intimidation to control the organization of the Convention against the known will of the delegates; they have outraged every principle of parliamentary law in their proceedings; they have refused to seat in the Convention delegates representing three of the largest parishes in the State unless they would first pledge themselves to vote for the candidate selected by the Customhouse clique. Their delegates have been openly bought and sold in the public streets. In consequence of the fraud and deception attending the whole history of its career, that Convention does not truly represent the Republicans of this State, and we therefore declare we will not be bound by their acts, and will not support their candidates.

Exploits of a Crazy Man.

The Booneville Eagle contains the following account of a crazy man who escaped, entire nude, from an attic room to the roof of the building.

The citizens flocked to the rescue and were soon on the building. No sooner did the maniac discover his pursuers than he ran over the building nimble as a squirrel—thence on to the east portion of Koontz's block, which is two stories high, and passing rapidly to the main building, which corners on Fifth and Spring streets, and is three stories in height, he first endeavored to climb to the roof of the same by way of the water-spout, but evidently fearing to trust his weight, he abandoned this mode of asscension and paused for a moment and took a survey of the building; then, in less time than it takes to pen it he jumped upon a window-blind and ran up it with as much ease as a squirrel can climb a tree, and actually scaled the wall at the top of the window. How any human being could have made the ascent, seems almost a miracle. But crazy William accomplished it, and the exploit was witnessed by many from the street below.

The citizens now made a rush for the interior of the main building soon on the roof, having passed through the scuttle. As soon as the maniac discovered them upon the roof, he ran for the chimney, which extended upward from the roof six feet, attached to which was a lighting rod extending twelve feet above the chimney. He ran up the lightning rod in an instant, and was nearly at the top, when the rod bent under his weight and he was suspended in the air over the top of the rod. The sight was fearful. If he let loose his hold he would be dashed to pieces! The streets were filled with people who looked upon the unfortunate man as doomed to a terrible death.

But one avenue was open whereby to save him. Capt. Henry McPherson hastiy procured a rope and rushed to a second story window near where the victim was hanging and by repeated efforts succeeded in throwing it around his body, notwithstandidg his fighting to keep it off, and hauled him to the window ans thus rescued him. A shout went up from the crowd below as the maniac was drawn in at the window. The wife of the unfortunate man and other relatives witnessed the terrible sight from the street below in painful anguish. After he was rescued it took several powerful men to handle him and put on his clothing. He was however, safely secured, and now occupies a cell in our county jail. awaiting the assembling of our County Court for an order to send him to the lunatic asylum at Fulton.

The judges of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, as late as 1773, wore robes of scarlet, faced with black velvet, and in summer, black silk gowns. Gentlemen wore coats of every variety of color generally the cape and collar of velvet a different color from the coat. In 1780, General Washington arrived in New York from Mount Vernon, to assume the duties of the Presidency. He was dressed in a full suit of Virginia homespun. On his visit to New England he wore the old Continental uniform, except on the Sabbath, when he appeared in black. John Adams, when Vice President, wore a sword, and walked about the Streets with his hat under his arm. At his levees in Philadelphia. President Washington was clad in black velvet, his hair powered and gathered behing in a silk bag; yellow gloves; knee and shoe buckles; he held in his hand a cocked hat ornamented with a cockade, fringed about an inch deep with black feathers; a long sword in a white scabbard, with a polish steel hilt, hung at his side.

HUMOROUS.

An old toper addresses his bottle thus:

'Tis very strange that you and I
Together cannot pull;
For you are full when I am dry,
And dry when I am full.

The Mexican bread-fruit tree is to be introduced in Florida.

AGE OF PIO NINO.—On the 13th of May Pope Pius IX. entered upon the eighty-first year of his age, and in a few weeks he will celebrate the twenty-sixth aniversary of his Pontificate. No Pope has reigned so many years consecutively, nor traversed so many political and social changes and revolutions.

(To lazy housemaid) —"Now, Mary, you know I'm going to give a ball to-morrow night, and I shall expect you to bestir yourself, and make yourself generally useful." "Yes m'm, but I'm sorry to say, m'm, I can't dance."

At a revival meeting in one of the interior towns of Mississippi, the minister observed one of the congregation to be sound asleep. Shocked at such a sight, the good man went up to the unconcious person, awoke him, and asked him if he was a Christian. "No," said the man, "I am an editor of a newspaper." "Then let us pray," replied the devoted minister, greatly astonished at such an answer.

ALL MIXED UP.—A certain witness in an assault and battery suit we once heard, mixed up things considerably, in giving his account of the affair. After relating how Dennis came to time and struck him, he proceeded:

"So, yer honor, I just hauled off and wiped his jaw. Just then his dog cum along, and I hit him again."

"Hit the dog?"

"No, yer honor, hit Dennis. And then I up with a stun and throwed it at him, and rolled him over and over."

"Threw a stone at Dennis?"

"At the dog, yer honor. And he got up and hit me again."

"The dog?"

"No, Dennis. And with that stuck his tail betwixt his legs and run off."

"Dennis?"

"No, the dog. And when he came back at me he got me down and pounded me, yer honor."

"The dog came back at you?"

"No, Dennis, yer honor—and he isn't hurt any at all."

"Who isn't hurt?"

"The dog, yer honor."

A GENTLE REBUKE.—A lady riding in a car on the New York Central Railroad was disturbed in her reading by the conversation of two gentlemen sitting opposite her. One of them seemed to be a student of some college on his way home for a vacation.

He used much profane language, greatly to the annoyance of the lady.

She thought she would rebuke him, and on begging pardon for interrupting them, asked the young student if he had studied the languages.

"Yes, madam; I have mastered the languages quite well."

"Do you read and speak Hebrew?

"Quite fluently."

"Will you be so kind as to do me a small favor?"

"With great pleasure, I am at you service."

"Will you be so kind as to do your swearing in Hebrew."

We may well suppose the lady was not annoyed any more by the ungentlemanly language of this would-be gentleman.

The polonaise has been worn more or less for several years, but it is now an almost indispensable part of the dress. It is made in all sorts of styles and all sorts of materials, and worn indiscriminately in the kitchen and the drawing-room. Originally introduced as an out-door garment, simple, yet graceful, protective and convenient, it has been changed, modified, adapted, and "improved," until there is nothing left of it but its name, and a nondescript thing which puts on a hundred fantastic forms, culminating in the absurd "Polly Varden."

SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1872.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

We will be glad if you notify our office of any delinquency on the part of our carrier, as our arrangements are such that every issue of our paper should be regularly delivered.

RELIGIOUS.—The regular morning and evening services in Central Church to-morrow.

CIGARS, CIGARS.—If you wish a good CIGAR, and at the same time to see the familiar face of an old friend, call at 236 Canal street where Mr. De Mailly and his worthy dame dispense the weed.

WE would recommend Hon. J. H. Ingraham, when he goes out stumping, to be sure and tell the people, how Kellogg assigned him to whitewashing water-closets when he obtained a place in the Customhouse, while Kellogg was Collector.

TO COLORED MEN.

Now that the blaze of contention over "harmony" is out, now that every honest and honorable effort to unite the old Republican party has been violently defeated and the unscrupulous few have obtained a temporary victory over the many, and have nominated a State ticket of their own in opposition and repugnance to the will of the people, it is fitting that we look to the issues that are now pressing themselves on our notice, squarely in the face. We affirm that the Packard Convention and its nominees are for all purposes of utility or success a huge failure, and cannot receive the support and endorsement of the people of Lonisiana.

But there is to be a State election in November, and it is of paramount importance that the bulk of the people of the State, without regard to technical and unimportant issues unite immediately on a common platform to secure the overthrow of Federal domination personified on the Baton Rouge ticket, and place the State Government on a basis in accordance with the exigencies of the times and the demands of progress and enlightenment.

This is the most opportune moment to inaugurate the era of harmony and good feeling between all of the races and classes of the State. Professions of such a desire have been repeatedly expressed on all sides, and we regard this as the moment to effect a real, beneficial and permanent harmony of feeling and sentiment between all the good people of Louisiana, irrespective of former political creeds, colors, classe and surroundings. Such a combination will not only be an evidence of the triumph of reason and of truth over prejudice and error, but also be a happy auguary of better times, and relieve Louisiana from being the scene of adverturous exploits and blatherskite pretensions.

In connexion with the above it is worthy of remark that the Customhouse Convention was deliberately composed of persons holding offices under the federal government, that a majority of the nominees are federal office-holders. That the President and Secretary of the convention were federal office-holders. That the majority of the Sergeant-at-arms who figured so conspicuously about the convention are in the employ of the federal government. That the convention was manipulated completely by the United States Marshal, S. B. Packard. That in short the convention was a regular family game.

BOGUS DELEGATES.

The Customhouse delegation from Iberville deserves a passing notice. The reader will find it difficult, from its personnel, to perceive its claim of a representative body. Nor less worthy of remark than its peculiar composition, is the fact that all the delegates have their domicil in the second ward. When we give the names of these self-chosen representatives of the people, our position shall not admit of a doubt. They are as follows:

Charles A. Merrill, Assessor of Internal Revenue; W. W. Wharton, Postoffice Agent; J. H. Jackson, Postmaster of Plaquemine; N. Kennyon, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue; A St. Dizier, storekeeper for Merrill; and a certain Mr. Durand, printer for said Merrill.

We copy the above from the Iberville News, and offer it to our readers as a sample of what material that notorious Convention was composed. If the managers of the concern are not all gone completely out of their senses, and will only believe that the people of Louisiana don't belong to the Federal office-holders they will not fail to recognize the utter imbossibility of securing respect for, or toleration of a crowd of as veritable impostors as ever dared to claim to represent constituencies. Why, if the nominees on Boss Packard's ticket were the best that the State affords, the infamous means systematically adopted to foist it on the people would be enough to provoke indignation and resentment to ensure its repudiation. But it has the additional element of non-success in presenting some objectionable candidates whose nominations were effected through tyranny over employees.

ON DIT, that a few evenings ago the peace of a hitherto quiet neighborhood in the city, was so disturbed as to create apprehensions of a mortal combat between a distinguished Fedaral office-holder, and a no less distinguished State Senator. Further particulars are reserved for future use.

LO, THE POOR NEGRO!

"ET TU BRUTE?"

Under the caption of "An Aggressive Spirit," the New Orleans Republican, of Thursday, indites a cruel aspersion against "our colored people." It repeats the slanders of the worst enemies of the negro, and making a pretence of believing its statements, illustrates its position by reference to what it calls "two notable instances" of colored men indulging in aggressions on white men.

No one would more sincerely deprecate, and more promptly and vehemently oppose and denounce any disposition on the part of colored people to assail the white people, because they are white, than ourselves. But our observation has not penetrated as far perhaps as our contem., and our unwillingness to believe that because in two recent brawls the combatants happened to be one white and one black, therefore the race of colored people have contracted a hostility for the white people and are exhibiting it in wanton attacks on unoffending white people may be the result of ignorance, but the propositions seem to be too small for the monstrous conclusion, and we fear that our neighbor has allowed his paternal solicitude for "our colored race" to abide in peace in this land of their toleration (?) to betray him into an unpleasant attitude.

The Republican ought to know that the cry it insinuatingly aids is a false one. It knows that the negro, nor any other race, cannot be held responsible for the foibles, vices and crimes of individuals, supposing offences to be committed; and it knows that, as a race, "our colored people" are in no danger of contracting any war of races.

CONCERT.

The concert of Gravier School Glee Club which took place Thursday evening last at the Lyceum Hall was a grand success, and was so voted by the large and respectable audience which completely filled the Hall.

The singing was of itself more than an equivalent for the price of admission, and afforded the lovers of good music a rich repast. The solos, duetts and choruses, were well selected and most skillfully executed. Among the most enjoyable pieces of the programme were the ballads, "Little Dolly's Vision," by Miss Fournette; "I'll love thee as long as I live," by Miss Parish; and the "Aria speak to me," by Miss Harrod. The comic songs by Master Oscar Montgomery were well received and elicited much applause Professor A. P. Williams the accompanyist, sustained his, by no means easy portion of the performance, with credit throughout did Messrs. Kelly, Corbin and White.

MUTTERINGS OF THE STORM.

As was to be expected, the federal officers tyrrannical conduct in thusting objectionable federal office-holding aspirants upon the representatives of the people of the Stats, is already producing its legitimate result. The tide of popular indignation and repudiation is setting in and we insert elsewhere in this issue, resolutions adopted by some of our political organizations, condemnatory of the course pursued. The ball thus set in motion will assuredly roll on till it crush the "insolence of office" that dares to trample on the rights of freemen.

☞ We elsewhere publish the call of the Republican State Central Committee for the election of an additional number of delegates to the August Convention. Our friends must understand that they have to elect throughout the State the number of delegates on the apportionment list published, which will be added to the number now members of the convention, and the two will be joined and form one convention consisting of about 230 members.

☞ The National Republican will confer a favor on a large number of citizens if it will explain why it italicized the word "black" in its editorial on Tuesday. Some one suggests that perhaps Mr. Mary can tell.

The Picayune says "Mr. Antoine's vote was always an adverse one to Mr. Pinchback's." What on?

BEYOND HIS ENDURANCE.

Col. Geo. W. Carter, late editor in chief of the National Republican, couldn't possibly groan any longer under the burden of tyrranny which crushed out all the manhood of the majority of the Packard packed Convention and so he publicly repudiated and denounced the concern in the City dailies on Thursday last. His reasons for coming out from among them are numerous and cogent.

He says:

"The grand doctrine which I understand to be the very foundation, not only of the Republican party, but also of all Republican governments, that rulers should be selected by the people, was wantoly trampled upon, and a ticket was presented which, in a word, represents simply the preference and choice chiefly of the federal officers within this State. I believe it wrong in principle to sanction such a selection, and I further believe it would be futile to attempt to accomplish the election of officers so selected. Therefore I have deemed it more in accordance with my duty to the Republican people of the State to do at once, and frankly, what I should be compelled to do later, and under circumstances which would allow, possibly, of no successful endeavor to remedy the evils thus imposed. If this act of mine—be it sacrifice or otherwise—shall contribute to rousing the people of the Republican party to a sense of their danger, to an effort to relieve themselves of the consequeness of certain defeat, which, in my opinion, awaits them, with the roll of candidates thus selected, I shall feel the consciousness of having shown something of the deep interest which I feel in the great Republican party, which has honored me in the past, and, I trust, will ever honor me with its confidence.

In my judgment, the part taken by such of the federal officials as attempted to control the convention was dictatorial and indelicate, and calculated to reflect upon the federal government, and to place under suspicion and in jeopardy the integrity of the party in the State. Manifestly much more deference was shown by the managers to the prejudices of our political enemies than to the honest differences of our political friends in the selection of the ticket, and more effort was made to conciliate a few Reformers present than to conciliate and heal the differences unfortunately existing in the Republican ranks."

He concludes his forcible arraignment in this fittingly contemptuous style:

"I do not propose that the small politicians of the party, whose principal importance is derived from the official positions they occupy, shall determine my actions or duty in the premises."

These declarations from a gentleman who has had every opportunity of deriving information, and fully competent to arrive at legitimate conclusions from given considerations are valuable, and the testimony borne by him will prove to be a valuable contribution to the mass of evidence which will be offered to show by what unscrupulous and fraudulent means the Customhouse ticket was forced through the Convention at Baton Rouge.

APPROPRIATE RECOGNITION.

The urbane conduct and the uniform attentions shown by Capt. John Hein and the officers and crew of the B. L. Hodge to the members of the Convention on their way to and from Baton Rouge, and the ready willingness with which Mr. Charles Yeager, and his splendid band dispensed their services, elicited a universal approval, and the members of the Convention felt that they should as a body express and record their appreciation of the same.

Accordingly while on the way and in full sight of New Orleans, Lieutenant Governor Pinchback assembled the passengers in the saloon and after his offering several remarks Col. Underwood moved the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the delegates to the Republican State Convention assembled in Baton Rouge under the presidency of the Hon. Hugh J. Campbell, be tendered to Mr, Charles Yeager, leader, and the Members of the celebrated "Silver Cornet Band" for the many musical entertainments afforded to the delegation during the trip to and from Baton Rouge.

That the thanks of the delegates to the Republican State Convention be and are hereby tendered to Capt. John Hein, Messrs. W. Culbertson and T. Dougherty, clerks, and to J. Hardisty steward, and also to the employees of the steamboat B. L. Hodge No. 2, for the kindness, accommodation and many favors accorded the said delegates during their trip to and from Baton Rouge.

These resolutions were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted.

STRAIGHT UNIVESITY.

According to announcement, the annual exercises at this institution commenced on Monday morning, continued Tuesday, and were closed on Wednesday evening with the annual exhibition.

The scholars all went through the ordeal of examination with great credit to themselves and their instructors.

We regret to observe the lukewarmness and general inattention in the known friends of popular education to such matters. Nor do the parents of the children exhibit that interest and enthusiasm, and parental solicitude in seeing and hearing and knowing how their children acquit themselves before the public; how far they have advanced since the last examination &c. We are aware that the majority of these parents are poor, and many of them illiterate, but as such an occasion, such a tax on the time of the laboring class occurs only once a year, the sacrifice could and should be made.

Besides, such recognition and interest are encouraging to the teachers and the children. Hardly anything kills more surely than neglect. Nothing is more encouraging and satisfactory than interest and attention. It was therefore with much sorrow that we observed so few persons attending the examinations.

Conspicious in the chapel hung the roll of honor, of which the following is a copy:

FIRST GRADE.

Mary T. Francois,
Geo. W. Kellar,
Cora L. Smith,
Alice M. Carrian,
Jennie A. Lawson,
Louis A. Martinet,

SECOND GRADE.

Ed. E. Vining,

Felix Reed.

The exhibition on Wednesday fared better than the examination and it is gratifying to notice that the highly creditable manner in which the exercises were got through by the pupils well repaid the audience for their attendance.

During the intermission Professor Fuller read the roll of honor and the method of making it up. Two prizes were offered for attendance during the previous three months, one for girls, and one for boys. Three boys August Toussaint, George Kellar, and Albert Palbert equal in attendance claimed the first prize and were compelled to decide by lot, the lucky boy being August Toussaint, who obtained Brook's Universal Gazeteer.

Miss Alice Thomas was the fortunate pupil among the girls, and she obtained a splendid bound copy of Longfellows Poems.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE GRAVIER SCHOOL.

The examination and exhibition in this school took place on Wednesday June 26, at the School Room on Gravier street.

The large room was tastefully decorated with wreaths and flowers. The examination reflected great credit upon scholars and teachers. There were several recitations by the little ones which were excellent. Master Isaac Brown and Misses Salina Parrish, Laura Raymond and Rosa Rollins, being especially noticeable. The singing, under the direction of Prof. A. P. Williams, was very good and was received with much applause. This school, which is one of the best of our public schools, numbers about 250 pupils, and is under the control of the following staff of teachers:

Mr. A. P. Williams, Principal.
Mrs. M. S. Hamton,
Miss E. C. Caralan,

" G. A. Henderson,

LETTER FROM WM. LLOYD GARRISON.

We have read the autograph letter, of which the following is a copy addressed by the venerable anti-slavery leader, William Lloyd Garrison, of Boston, to Mr. William Still, author of that interesting work, "The Undergrounnd Railroad" just published and for sale by Porter & Coates in this city. It is meeting with astonishing success; already a second edition of 6,000 copies has been ordered. We print Mr. Garrison's letter, not alone because it is a just tribute to Mr. Still's book, but because it is a graphic review of one of the most interesting passages in the world's history:

ROXBURY, April 7, 1872.

DEAR MR. STILL: I have already delayed too long in thanking you for your presentation to me of your voluminous and well-executed work "The Underground Railroad." I have examined it with a deep and thrilling interest. It is a most important portion of anti-slavery history, which, but for your industry, research, and personal experience and knowledge might nearly all have been lost to posterity. Its reliableness, moreover, cannot be called in question. It is, therefore, not "fiction founded upon fact," and embellished by a lively imagination, but fact without a particle of fiction narrated in a simple, ingenuous, straightforward manner, and needing no coloring whatever. What a revelation it makes of the barbarities of the slave system—of the formidable obstacles which interposed to prevent a successful exodus from the house of bondage—of the terrible exposures and sufferings to which the fugitive slaves were subjected in their attempts to be free—of the daring and heroism required to run the risk of betrayal, recapture, starvation in the swamp and drowning in the river, suffocation in trunk or box, seizure by two-legged and four-legged blood-hounds in hot pursuit, and a thousand other perils. How it illustrates too, the abject subserviency of the nation to the slave power, so that even in Boston, the atrocious fugitive slave law was as effectually enforced as it could have been in New Orleans; and in all our broad domains none could give shelter or assistance to the hunted and famished victim, except at the peril of fine and imprisonment. And yet, numerous as are the instances you have recorded, they are only samples of thousands of others, which can never be chronicled, running through six generations. May we trust our senses there is an end of all this wickedness—that a final and marvellous deliverance has been wrought for all in bondage? Yes, it is true; and there has been the same Divine interposition as of old. And the Lord said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmakers; for I know their sorrows and I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians." * * * * "Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power; Thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy!"

I hope that the sale of your work will be widely extended, not only that the large expense incurred in its preparation and printing may be liberally covered, but for the enlightenment of the rising generation as to the inherent cruelty of the defunct slave system, and to perpetuate such an abhorence of it as to prevent all further injustice towards the colored population of our land. It is a book for every household.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON.

WM. STILL.

THE END OF THE WORLD IN 1872.—It is predicted by French astronomers, as a scientific fact, that the earth will cease to revolve on its axis—will burst, burn or tumble to pieces—will come to an end the coming fall. And strangely enough the learned men of Italy predict the end at the same time, differing only in asserting the destruction will be caused by fire. The prophesiers maintain that an incondevably immense subterranean fire is now consuming the bowels of the earth; and refer to the recent fallings in of the earth's surface near Vesuvius, and the changed appearance of the matter vomited from the crester as proof positive of their theory. Coming from such sources, including some of the greatest students in the world, the prediction is at least worthy of consideration.

It is reasonable to expect Senators Cameron, Conkling, Ton, Spencer, Osborne, Kellog, Sherman, Pomeroy, Nye, and will not be returned to the S again, and they have been so spicuous in what may be called degradation of the Senate the last few years, that their tion to private life will be with great satisfaction by all of good government. The ness of the Senate and its on patronage are such that but the highest character part of the members can prevent being a hotbed of corruption. With such men as have of late ruled in it, it becomes a collo of persons quarrelling over sites of one sort or another, viewing all legislation with to its influence on their fortunes. A seat in the Senate become so profitable, too, that pays to buy up legislatures to secure it; and unless a process can be brought about some way, people will begin to for one assembly only. One most notorious jobbers, Mr. Ha has recently been dismissed to way for an excellent successor, Allison of Iowa; and one of the senators, Mr. Ferry, has just re-elected, so the process of provement is going on. Mr. C ron, who is, however, the head front of all corruption, and "strong Grant man," comes up re-election next winter in Penn vania: and this fact will doubl exercise an important influence the next State election and thro it on the Presidential election, unless he is greatly belied he not allow considerations of expe to prevent his getting a legislat elected in his interest.—The Nat

First Ward Republican Mother Club.

New Orleans, June 26, 1872.

At a regular meeting of the First Ward Republican Mother Club, held this day, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the First Ward Republican Mother Club, cordially endorse the action of the State Convention, presided over by Hon. H. J. Campbell, in its efforts to bring about harmony in the ranks of the Republicans of Louisiana and we attribute the failure to unite the two Conventions lately assembled at Baton Rouge to the machinations of the corrupt clique of Federal office holders in our midst, whose course during the last twelvemonths proves that they are determined to rule or ruin the Republican party of our State.

Resolved, That we recognize the State Executive Committee, presided over by Hon. H. J. Campbell as the only legitimate head of the Republican party of Louisiana, and pledge it our undivided support in carrying out such measures as will secure a glorious victory for our party at the November election.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Republicans of this ward be, and are hereby tendered to Messrs. Isabelle, McDonnell, Boswell and Murphy, delegates to the Republican State Convention and Henry Washington, alternate, for the able and patriotic manner in which they discharged their duty.

Resolved, That the Corresponding Secretary be instructed to publish these resolutions in the N. O. Republican and Louisianian, and transmit a copy to the State Executive Committee.

(Signed) A. FRILOT.

Third Ward Colfax Guards.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Colfax Guards, held at Clay Hall, the twenty-sixth instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, James H. Ingraham and S. Packard, delegates to the State convention at Baton Rouge, have proved themselves recreant to the instructions confided to their care by a too trusting constituency in view of their glaring treachery and utter disregard to all principles and tradition of the Republican party, and it also appearing that the said J. H. Ingraham and S. Packard have labored more for their own individual advancement than for the good of the Republican party or their constituents; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Colfax Guards, in regular meeting assembled, hereby repudiate, denounce and in no manner recognize or countenance the traitorous, infamous and unpardonable conduct or actions of said J. H. Ingraham and S. B. Packard, delegates in and to the said convention, as in any wise expressing the feelings or political sentiments of this club; and be it further

Resolved, That inasmuch as the said Ingraham and Packard are prominent aspirants to positions of trust and honor in this community through the assistance of our votes, therefore this club does hereby declare the said J. H. Ingraham and S. B. Packard to be untirely unworthy of our confidence or support in their aspirations for State or political advancement; be it further

Resolved, That we, the members of the Colfax Guards, will not recognize the nominations made by the Packard convention, and we hereby denounce Mr. Kellogg as a traitor to the Republican party, and not worthy of his nomination; be it further

Resolved, That we, the members of the club, do demand the removal of Mr. Packard, Mr. Casey, and Mr. James H. Ingraham from the Customhouse.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to all mother clubs throughout the parish and State.

President.

Sixth Ward Radical Republican Mother Club.

New Orleans, June 26, 1872.

At a regular meeting held this day of the Sixth Ward Republican Mother Club, the following resolution, presented by John A. Rose, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Customhouse convention assembled at Baton Rouge on the nineteenth day of June, 1872, did not represent the Republican party of Louisiana. It was packed, by the utmost, outrageous bounty and corruption, in the interests of the Customhouse. It expelled the legally elected delegates of the people and put in their places men who did not live in the parishes they pretended to represent. The president and secretary were convicted by their own convention of fraudulently altering the rolls. Their masters, by a trick, when they discovered that the majority of the convention favored a union with the regular Republicans, substituted a fraudulent resolution in place of the one really passed, by which such insulting conditions were imposed that union was made impossible. They refused all honorable offers of compromise with the regular Republicans. They nominated a Johnson Democrat for Governor, who swore that in the massacre of 1866 the rebels were peaceable and the negroes were the rioters, who filled the Customhouse with Democrats, and did not employ a single colored man in it; who dodged a vote on Sumner's civil rights bill. They nominated for Lieutenant Governor a Wilderness Senator, who tried to overturn the State Government, to turn out a colored Lieutenant Governor, and put in a Democrat, to turn out a Republican Governor, to turn out four Republican State Senators and put Democrats in their places. They crammed the Democrat Kellogg down the throats of the convention, in place of the Republican Mary, who was really their choice. And finally, by all this series of black, treacherous and infamous Customhouse dictation they have driven away over one half of their own numbers, cut off from them the whole body of regular Republicans, and completely disgusted the whole people of the State; and, therefore, we cannot and will not support their candidates, or recognize their organization in any way, but will give our hearty and united support to the nominees of the regular Republican convention, to meet in New Orleans, August 9, 1872, and presided over by Hon. H. J. Campbell.

Resolved, That the resolution be published in the New Orleans Republican.

F. P. BENEDICT,
President.

ALFRED CAPLA,
Secretary.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE

American People

OF THE INTRODUCTION

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE UNITED STATES OF

Dr. G. Colletso's

CELEBRATED EUROPEAN RENOWNED ALTERATIVE PILLS.

The success of which in England, France, Germany, Austria and Prussia is unprecidented, having entirely superseded all magnesias, salts, seltzers, oils, etc., of every description, and are universally acknowledged to be the most effective and agreeable Purgative ever yet introduced.

Dr. Colletso has just completed arrangements to supply the people in America with his valuable Pills, and to prevent any imitation of them, manufactures them at his Central Depot, No. 32 Carondelet street, New Orleans, where orders are already pouring in from all parts of the country. Dr. Calletso, to assure the people that his are not gotten up on speculation and never yet tried, would state that he is a graduate member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and during his extensive practice for the last twenty-five years in Europe, has abored to produce some medicine which would come within the reach of all, and and which would effectually cure a large number of complaints so general, and for the want of an article of this kind generally goes neglected until the healt is impaired and undermined and the constitution shattered. He, therefore, has tried them effecually in Europe for the last fifteen years, with the most satisfactory results, and their success has been so complete, that it has astonished even himself, and surpassed his most sanguine expectations. One or two boxes save hundreds of dollars in doctors' fees every year in curing the following complaints, which are at the foundation of all diseases:

If your blood is rancid or vitiated, purify it with

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your skin is diseased and you are covered with pimples, boils, blotches, old sores, scurvy or scrofula,

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will remove and cure them all.

If you are worse, and have Ulcers, Cancer or Tumors, the effect is magical and the cure complete in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your Liver is sluggish and you are suffering with jaundice and palpitation of the heart, you can be cured by taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your digestion is bad, and you are constipated, your skin dry and feverish, your head hot and aching, your mouth and lips parched and your eyes red and constipated, or inflamed, you will find immediate relief in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have inflammation of the stomach, bowels, womb, kidneys or bladder, with pain in the small of the back, difficulty in stooping without falling, weakness in the knees and dizziness in the head, with dimness of sight, you can remove the inflammation and restore your strength by using

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have an enfeebled and debilitated constitution, and are afflicted with lassitude, loss of memory, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, short breath, and are nervous and restless, with bad circulation of the blood, try

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you reside in a climate where you are liable to Yellow Fever, Typhoid or Typhus Fever, or Fever and Ague, you can escape these diseases entirely by taking as a preventive

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

In spring and summer, when dysentery and diarrhœa are so prevalent among children and adults, one box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will check the complaint and cure you at once. Should you be attacked with that dread disease, Cholera, so fatal in its effects, its perfectly harmless if you are provided with a box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS!

The following is only one of thousands of thousands of testimonials that could be published, but as it is from four of the most eminent Physicians in London, it is considered substantial proof of their efficacy in Fever and Cholera cases:

12 HYDE PARK GATE,
London, August 15, 1871.

Dr. G. Colletso:

DEAR SIR—We have pleasure in informing you that after several trials of your valuable ALTERATIVE PILLS, both among our outside patients and especially in the Fever and Cholera Hospitals, we have found that in every case where your Pills were given in time, that they invariably checked the disease at once, and especially so in all Cholera cases, not a single life of which has been lost wherever we have used them. Such is our confidence, after having proved them by five years' experience, we have decided to adopt their use altogether, and desire to express to you our most distinguished regard for so valuable and useful a discovery. Please forward to above address one gross boxes of your ALTERATIVE PILLS, and find inclosed cheque for same, and oblige your most obedient servants,

A. K. WYMAN, Bart, M. D.
JOHN F. MARTIN, M. D.
HENRY C. BODEN, M. D.
C. K. TRACY, M. D.

Dr. Colletso would also state as an evidence of their usefulness in Fever cases that his were used by His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WHALES during his illness, and the surgeons would not allow any other Purgative Medicine to be used.

In order that the people may not be deceived in purchasing his Alterative Pills, he would state that they are all manufactured at his

CENTRAL DEPOT,
32 Carondelet Street,
New Orleans.

where he prefers to receive all applications that he may send a medicine which he can guarantee and which will prevent impostors from trying to counterfeit; but after having once used these, patients can never be deceived by the substitution of any obnoxious compound.

Price per box $1, or six boxes $5, delivered to any address in the country.

All letters and applications through the post should be addressed to

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Notices of the Press.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly-welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulate HARPER'S is edited. There is not a agazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains exon its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.
—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of HARPER'S.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, HARPER'S WEEKLY has earned for itself a right to its title, "A JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION."—New York Evening Post,

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL

OF A

WALTHAM WATCH

BEATS

4 times a second,

240 times a minute,

14,400 times an hour,

345,600 times a day,

922,60 times a week,

10,368,000 times a month,

126,144,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH, THAN ANY OTHER KIND OF MACHERY.

It must not only run all day, butall night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stand up. When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

will fulfil all these requirements. I wound once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

CONTAINS

5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM

Watches have seven Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWEL THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery. The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch coast over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finisheds as perfectly for TEN TIMES AS MUCH.

A Genuine waltham Watch

Is ihterchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, withnot any reference to their former combination. This is a

GREAT ADVANTAGE;

For, if any part of a Waltham Watch is injured we can always replace it at a Trifling Expense.

A GENUINE WALTHAM WATCH

Is made with special reference to

DURABILITY

Other Watches will run for a year or two, an require constant repairs; but

A Waltham Watch

WILL RUN FAITHFULLY

FOR MANY YEARS.

We sell these Watches,
